REPORT NO.   25X1X

1. The leader of a party of four en route to a meeting of the International Federation of Democratic Women in Indonesia was SHEN Tz'u-chiu (沈兹九), also known as CHANG Mo-lan (張慕蘭). She is the wife of HU Yu-chih (胡愈之), but was traveling with a diplomatic passport bearing her maiden name. The delegates left Peiping on 17 November for Hong Kong with valid entry permits for Indonesia, but without visas for Hong Kong and Singapore.

2. SHEN and her husband have a long history of pro-Communist activity in Singapore, where her husband was a leader in the China Democratic League, and in Hong Kong where he was a leading figure in the southern headquarters of the League. Both were also colleagues of WANG Jen-shu, Chinese Communist Ambassador to Indonesia. SHEN is chief of the Propaganda and Education Section of the All-China Federation of Democratic Women (ACDWF).

25X1A   Comment. The Chinese Communist radio announced on 19 November the names of three delegates to the Conference; they were SHEN, member of the Standing Committee of the ACDWF, TSENG K'o-tseng, noted authoress, and CH'I Yun (祁云), a woman worker. Another reliable report states that the delegation entered Hong Kong, but eventually returned to Peiping, having got no further. This report lists SHEN, CH'I, TSENG, and CHOU Shu-min.
